

LEGAL & COMMERCIAL

LC14 Contract Strategy and Management

In today's complex and high-stakes business environments, effective contract strategy and management are essential to achieving organisational goals, controlling risk, and optimising value. This course equips delegates with practical skills and insights to develop robust contract strategies, draft and negotiate commercial agreements, and manage contract performance throughout the lifecycle. Designed to bridge legal, commercial, and operational priorities, the programme explores best practices in contract drafting, negotiation, supplier relationship management, and dispute resolution. Participants will gain the tools to drive contract success in both project and operational contexts.
