

MANAGEMENT

MG51 Building a World-Class Organisational Culture

This course is designed to equip professionals in management and supervisory roles with the skills and practical tools necessary to cultivate a high-performing organisational culture. By exploring key elements such as psychological safety, team dynamics, and effective communication, this course will prepare delegates to foster an environment that embraces change, encourages trust, and drives commitment. Using best practices from world-leading organisations, participants will gain the knowledge to influence positive cultural transformation and apply strategic approaches to improve performance. By the end of the course, delegates will leave with modern, actionable insights to implement in their organisations.
