LC20 Negotiation Skills for Business Success

This course equips professionals with the knowledge and confidence to navigate negotiation challenges across a range of business contexts. Participants will develop a strategic understanding of negotiation processes, while honing practical skills in communication, preparation, and conflict management. By exploring the dynamics of stakeholder relationships, cultural sensitivity, and deal finalisation, delegates will emerge better prepared to influence outcomes, secure value, and strengthen partnerships. The course is grounded in contemporary business challenges and supports effective negotiation both within organisations and with external partners.
